Dear Archie,

I wrote a poem about nature.

NATURE SCENE

If you gazed at a nature scene,
It seems as if you can just relax.
Whenever you gaze at a nature scene, don't worry about anything.
You will have peace of mind and a quiet time.
The best nature scene,
I think is a scene which is green.

2nd PRIZE—$4.00

REPORTER
LAURA TAYLOR
144 Leighton Way
Mother, A.P.B., Canada 9V6S9

Dear Archie,

The Dalmatian breed is a very interesting one. I found out that it was developed about 1800 by the French Government as a watch dog and guard dog. They have a high intelligence and strong sense of loyalty. They are a popular pet in both Europe and America.

The best type of dog is the one that loves you and would give his life to protect you. He is also to be trained as a police and war dog.

The Dalmatian is a rather long dog. His coat is white with black or liver spots. He may be black, brown or grey with white markings. The last of a Dalmatian is white. The coat is short and the eyes are blue. One says in the animal world, "Spot and Spot's mate."
